Stanley Street Station commands the corner of Crown and Stanley Streets in East Sydney. The furniture in the bar section – an ottoman here and a retro couch there – works well with the 50s swing music creeping out from the speakers. The low coffee tables are perfect for small bites from the grazing menu and the lighting is just right. Thankfully, the Station hasn't followed the trend of several Darlo bars by charging eight bucks for a beer you wouldn't normally order and instead has gone down the 'touch above pub prices' path.
